Short Bio

Chris and Tara Borghese are the Co-Founders of The Marriage Revolution, where they help married couples find the ultimate state of understanding, connection, and intimacy. They have taught multiple marriage and relationship courses over their 27 years of being married. After sifting through everything in the marriage space, they stumbled onto the answer in an unlikely arena... the business world! Chris's 25 years as a corporate executive gave him the skillset to build teams and utilize difference strengths on the team...there is NO greater team than the marriage relationship!

Since discovering a Revolutionary system to having a healthy and happy marriage, they are passionate about getting this into the hands of every couple. Learning to understand your own gifts and personalities is key to being able to complete your mate rather than compete with your mate.

They have successfully made the transition from Chris being a corporate executive and Tara being a stay at home mom to working together as entrepreneurs. They have been featured on Podcasts such as "The Five Minute Bark, Joe Ortega, and StaceyC, The Power to Be Radio Program,

Long Bio

After experiencing a “bump in the road” in their marriage after 10 years, Chris and Tara were on a full-court press to find answers and a different way of doing marriage. The “love, respect, trust method is fine in theory (they actually taught this) but what about the “how-to”?

A Revolution is defined as “an overthrow of a social order for a superior system”. Chris and Tara have finally found this superior system that will help ALL couples better manage conflict and communicate at a level they never thought possible. It’s also a must for engaged couples to start out on the “RIGHT” foot.

They have chosen to partner with Dr. Robert Rohm who is world-renowned for training John Maxwell, Zig Ziglar and other leaders around the world. With over 40 years of experience utilizing the DISC Model of Human Behavior, they are bringing Dr. Rohm's curriculum to marriages. Chris and Tara are carrying the torch by becoming certified in the DISC Model Of Human Behavior to bring this unique, one of a kind teaching to married couples.

Chris and Tara believe that every human is made in the image of God, yet when we get married we try to change our spouse into our own image. This doesn’t work for two reasons, one being, it’s impossible and the other being, one of us would no longer be needed. We are usually attracted to our opposite because they possess qualities that we need and are lacking. Learning exactly how your mate is wired is the first step towards understanding and greater intimacy.

When applied, this easy to implement training will bring a tangible breakthrough in every marriage. Many marriages have experienced the pain of patterns of poor communication, withdrawal, blame, anger, the silent treatment, and the resolution that "this is as good as it's going to get." The feelings of being hurt, offended, under-valued and not appreciated fall by the wayside during their program. The lightbulb will switch on, and couples often ask how they've lived without this information for so long.

This is why they are calling it a REVOLUTION.
